

DUKES PLEADS NOT GUILTY OF GEORGE MURDER

Case to Go to Trial First Monday in March; G. A. Davis Counsel for Defendant

Jesse Dukes, a civilian employee in the quartermaster department at Schofield Barracks, today pleaded not guilty to a charge brought against him by the federal authorities of having murdered G. P. George, an aged money lender, at Lelehu one week ago last Wednesday night.

Dukes was indicted by the federal grand jury last Saturday. George A. Davis appeared as counsel for the defendant. The case will go to trial on the first Monday in March. George's death resulted from a blow which he received on the back of the head from some heavy instrument. The report of the finding of the body was made by Dukes, who was taken into custody by army officers after he had failed to give a satisfactory account of his whereabouts on the night of the murder. He was arrested by the federal officials a few days later.

THE POWER OF ADVERTISING

(From System for January, 1916)

If there are still men who ask the question "Does it pay to advertise?" I know their thinking is of the kind that would lead them to light factories with candles and insist upon the advantages which would accrue if the residents of modern cities still drew their water supply by bucket from the town well.

When nations in the greatest struggle of history advertise for armies; when kings and emperors and sultans come down from their thrones to seek the attention of the world and present their pleas and defenses through the press; when it has become the daily bread of a large part of the world's business, it is indeed a man of limited mentality who still questions the power of publicity. Its value to society has, in fact, so impressed itself that today publicity is the light of the world. It may be said, with little element of speculation in the assertion, that if publicity had characterized dealings between the nations of Europe during the past 50 years, and secret diplomacy had been eliminated, the present world war, with its terrorism and threat to all civilization, would not now be raging.

LET OFFICERS KNOW TO WHICH POST THEY GO

Change in Policy of War Department; Formerly Told on Arrival at Coast

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Jan. 31.—A change has evidently taken place in the policy of the war department, in regard to the assignment of officers relieved from duty in the Hawaiian Department. Heretofore officers leaving here seldom knew to what regiment and post they were assigned until their arrival at San Francisco, where they were directed to report to the commanding general, Western Department.

The officers due to leave on the February transport have all received word of their assignment to regiments, and knowing to what stations they are going are able to make plans accordingly. The change in policy is heralded with much rejoicing in army circles here.

Capt. Harry C. Williams, now in command of Battery E, 1st Field Artillery, is transferred to the 5th Field Artillery. All of this regiment is stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, except Battery A, which is at Fort Bliss, Texas.

The assignments of officers leaving the 4th Cavalry are as follows: Maj. O'Shea to the 8th Cavalry on border patrol in western Texas; Capt. James E. Pechet to the 7th at Douglas, Ariz.; Capt. W. B. Renziehausen to the 2d at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.; Capt. William C. Gardenhire to the 10th Cavalry on the border in Arizona; 1st Lieut. Alexander H. Milton to the 5th Cavalry, one squadron of which is at Fort Meyer, Va., another at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and the third at Fort Leavenworth, Kans.; 2d Lieut. Robert S. Donaldson and 2d Lieut. Philip J. Kiefer have been assigned to the 13th Cavalry on patrol duty on the Mexican border. Capt. Christian Briand's assignment is to the 12th Cavalry, the troops of which are scattered from Texas to South Dakota.

During the month of March two big blocks of bonds will be retired by companies listed on the Honolulu Stock & Bond Exchange.

Wailua, on March 31, will retire $251,000 worth of its 5 per cent bonds—the last block remaining outstanding of an issue which originally totaled $1,500,000. Interest ceases automatically on March 31. Payment in full, with accrued interest, will be made at the Hawaiian Trust Company, Ltd.

On March 1 the Pacific Guano & Fertilizer Company will retire $200,000 worth of its 6 per cent bond issue—the second block of bonds of that size to be retired since the issue was put out in 1913. The original issue was for $400,000, and the March retirement will leave outstanding $300,000 in bonds indebtedness. Payment will be made at $1025 and accrued interest per bond at the Guardian Trust Company, Ltd., or at the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco.

BREWERY OFFICIALS MAY MEET SOON TO CONSIDER POLICIES

Within a few days the newly-elected officers and directors of the Honolulu Brewing & Malting Company will hold their initial meeting and discuss, and probably act upon, any new policies which may be suggested as being to the advantage of all concerned.

This far, a director said today, no new policies have been outlined for the reason that the officers and board have only been in office for three days. Whether the business of the corporation will be conducted under the policies of the outgoing officers, he was unable to say.

ASHES OF YOUNG PRINTER TO BE SENT TO JAPAN

Cremate Body of Man Killed By Ahlborn's Auto; Charge Rego With Manslaughter

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the body of Yaichi Marumoto, killed Saturday night at 7 o'clock by an automobile driven by Frank Rego, was cremated and on the next boat the ashes will be sent back to the man's parents in Takata Gun, Heishiken, Japan. Japanese friends arranged for the cremation and will send the ashes back to the Orient.

Rego drives for G. P. Ahlborn, and while going to Waikiki with Ahlborn ran into Marumoto, who was going in the same direction. Rego says the Japanese had no lights on his bicycle and he did not see him until a moment previous to the collision. He says he sounded his horn twice and tried to turn out, and that the Japanese turned at the same time.

Marumoto was terribly crushed and all of his internal organs were injured. He died shortly after he was taken to Queen's Hospital in Ahlborn's machine. The Japanese had been in Hawaii only three months, and was employed as a typesetter with the Nippu Jiji. He was 20 years of age and unmarried.

Rego is charged with manslaughter, and will have a hearing after the coroner holds an inquest tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Paul Dudiot, 1661 Kalakaua avenue, and "Sonny" Cunha were witnesses of the accident.

That Symbol

Have you sent in YOUR IDEA for it?

We want a distinctive device to use on all our advertising, letterheads, etc., that will echo the business and strength of our institution and at the same time connect the thought instantly with Hawaii. It must be original.

Here are a lot of suggestions to show you just what we want. Some of these devices employ scenes, figures or symbolic marks that are directly associated with the enterprises using them.

HAWAII OFFERS HUNDREDS OF EXCELLENT MOTIFS FOR A DISTINCTIVE DEVICE—Flowers, trees, scenes, symbolisms, characteristic racial features, etc.

We will pay $25 for your idea if we judge it suitable for adoption

All are invited to enter this contest.

You do not need to be a professional designer to win; a drawing is not required, though if you can sketch it out even roughly, it will be preferred. Otherwise describe your idea carefully so that an artist will understand it in order to make the working drawing.

We will be the sole judges, and we reserve the right to reject all the ideas submitted if they do not meet our requirements.

POINTS TO BE CONSIDERED

1. Make it suggestive of strength, reliability, or integrity, or a combination of them.
2. Make it simple. It must be made so that its whole idea can be grasped at a glance; so that it will be just as clear when reduced to a very small size as when large.
3. Make it distinctive of Hawaii, and original.
4. If a drawing, make it in black and white.

Entries must be in by March 15, 1916. Mark the letter "Symbol Contest."
